Arizona Contractors Association Partners With Highpointe LLC Highpointe Premium Advantage, a Cost Effective Health Insurance Solution

PHOENIX – The Arizona Contractors Association (ACA) has teamed up with ACA member Highpointe, LLC to provide employee benefits brokering and consultation for their members. As the ACA's partnered employee benefits broker Highpointe will provide ACA members with exclusive pricing to their strategic new offering Highpointe Premium Advantage, as well as HighpointeHR and other services providing benefits to ACA members.

Highpointe was established in 2009 and provides innovative and proprietary employee benefits solutions to their clients assisting them in controlling group benefits costs, lowering benefits and human resources administration time.

"We're extremely excited to be able to partner with the ACA to bring our services to their members. The services we provide are a perfect fit for their members and will bring needed financial relief too many of the ACA members employer's benefit plans" said Brett Flanagan President, Highpointe, LLC.

Highpointe's expertise in embracing new solutions sets them apart as a vital resource for ACA members. Their Highpointe Premium Advantage has been proven to be a tremendous tool to combat rising group health insurance costs, often saving employers as much as 20% in annual premiums. It's truly innovative approach that will be a real asset to ACA members.

"In today's world of ever increasing medical costs and uncertainty of insurance coverage's, ACA members will find that this partnership with Highpointe to be a tremendous member benefit," says David Jones, ACA's President/CEO. In addition, Jones says, "the opportunity for ACA members to evaluate their current policies and compare to the Highpointe Premium Advantage is well worth the time, because of the potential cost savings."
