Arizona Contractors Association Announces 2010 Board of Directors

(Phoenix, AZ) -- The Arizona Contractors Association (ACA) announced Friday its board of directors for 2010. Rod Luker from Superstition Mountain Properties has been elected to be ACA Chairperson for second consecutive year. In ACA's 54-year history, only three previous individuals have served consecutive years. Luker along with the other board members will continue to guide ACA over the next 12 months as the association goes through an aggressive membership campaign as well as increasing services for members.

"We are very fortunate to have such a talented and experienced group to lead the Arizona Contractors Association for the next year," said ACA President/CEO David Jones. "We are looking forward to another year of serving our members with the highest quality of programs and benefits the construction industry has to offer."
